INTRODUCTION

One of the great anomalies in jazz is the persistence of the Hammond organ sound years after the manufacturer stopped making the instrument. In the 1930s Fats Waller made a few records on it and Wild Bill Davis and Milt Buckner were early exponents, but it was Jimmy Smith in the mid-fifties who gave the organ its definitive jazz style. Almost four decades after Smith made his first records, a hard core of devotees continue to play the organ in jazz clubs and concert halls around the world.

Most of the tunes on this album have been played by organists over the years, or lend themselves well to the organ's unique properties. Back At The Chicken Shack is a blues in F composed by Jimmy Smith; it is the title song of a famous Blue Note album on which Stanley Turrentine made his recording debut. Turrentine in turn wrote Sugar, a tune that harmonically isn't a blues, but its melody is entirely based on the minor pentatonic scale. Violinist Michael Urbaniak and the vocal group Rare Silk have recorded it, but their recordings are out-of-print at this writing (don't confuse this tune with another "Sugar" composed in 1928 and recorded by countless traditional and swing jazz groups). Misty was originally a ballad, but organist Groove Holmes' uptempo reading in the late sixties became a modest pop hit. The present recording takes a middle ground tempowise. For the true balladeer Marr and Rupp have given us Georgia On My Mind, When Sunny Gets Blue, and the often overlooked Flamingo. For a classic horn-and-organ recording, check out the Jimmy Smith version of the latter featuring trumpeter Lee Morgan. Sunny was the #1 tune of 1966 on the pop charts, but its changes have made it more suitable for jazz treatment than most Top Ten hits; the tune has had another life as functional music for countless commercial gig and club date bands. Stranger In Paradise is a Broadway tune based on a classical theme, once a common practice but rather unusual today. And On The Sunny Side of the Street has transcended its Depression era beginnings to achieve a timeless quality because it lends itself to so many different treatments – compare Dizzy Gillespie's with Ernestine Anderson's!

Hank Marr of Columbus, Ohio, is the organist on this recording. He appeared on a number of R&B records in the early fifties by Charles Brantley, Julian Dash, Little Esther and Clifford Scott as well as on a series recorded for King in the early sixties under his own name. His style draws on the Buckner-Davis tradition as well as from the Smith school. On this recording he uses the organ for the bass lines and a Korg keyboard for the right hand so that the usual separation is preserved and bassists and keyboard players can turn down the appropriate channel to facilitate practice. Jim Rupp is a young drummer, also from the Columbus area.

LYRICS

MISTY

Look at me, I'm as helpless as a kitten up a tree, and I feel like I'm clinging to a cloud; I can't understand,
I get Misty just holding your hand.
Walk my way and a thousand violins begin to play,
or it might be the sound of your hello, that music I hear,
I get Misty the moment you're near.
You can say that you're leading me on, but that's just what I want you to do.
Don't you notice how hopelessly I'm lost, that's why I'm following you.
On my own, would I wander through this wonderland alone, never knowing my right foot from my left, my hat from my glove,
I'm too Misty and too much in love.

WHEN SUNNY GETS BLUE

When Sunny Gets Blue her eyes get gray and cloudy,
Then the rain begins to fall. Pitter patter, pitter patter, love is gone so what can matter? No sweet lover man comes to call.
When Sunny Gets Blue, she breathes a sigh of sadness,
like the wind that stirs the trees.
Wind that sets the leaves to swayin'; like some violins are playin' weird and haunting melodies.
People used to love to hear her laugh, see her smile,
That's how she got her name. Since that sad affair,
She's lost her smile, changed her style, Somehow she's not the same.
But mem'-ries will fade, and pretty dreams will rise up, where her other dreams fell through; Hurry new love, hurry here, to kiss away each lonely tear, and hold her near,
When Sunny Gets Blue.

SUNNY

Sunny, yesterday my life was filled with rain. Sunny, you smiled at me and really eased the pain. Oh, the dark days are done and the bright days are here, my sunny one shines so sincere. Oh, Sunny, thank you for the sunshine bouquet. Sunny, thank you for the love you brought my way. You gave to me your all and all, now I feel ten feet tall. Sunny one so true, I love you. Sunny, thank you for the truth you've let me see. Sunny, thank you for the facts from A to Z. My life was torn like wind-blown sand then a rock was formed when we held hands, Sunny one so true, I love you.

GEORGIA ON MY MIND

Georgia, Georgia, the whole day through. Just an old sweet song keeps Georgia On My Mind (Georgia On My Mind).
Georgia, Georgia, a song of you. Comes as sweet and clear as moonlight through the pines.
Other arms reach out to me; Other eyes smile tenderly; Still in peaceful dreams I see, the road leads back to you.
Georgia, Georgia, no peace I find, Just an old sweet song keeps Georgia On My Mind.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF THE STREET

Grab your coat, and get your hat. Leave your worry on the doorstep. Just direct your feet to the Sunny Side Of The Street. Can't you hear a pitter-pat? And that happy tune is your step. Life can be so sweet On The Sunny Side Of The Street.
I used to walk in the shade, with those blues on parade. But I'm not afraid, this Rover crossed over.
If I never have a cent I'll be rich as Rockefeller. Gold dust at my feet, On The Sunny Side Of The Street.

STRANGER IN PARADISE

Take my hand, I'm a Stranger In Paradise, all lost in a wonderland, a Stranger In Paradise. If I stand starry eyed, that's a danger in paradise. For mortals who stand beside an angel like you.
I saw your face, and I ascended. Out of commonplace into the rare! Somewhere in space, I hang suspended, until I know there's a chance that you care. Won't you answer the fervent prayer, of a Stranger In Paradise? Don't send me in dark despair, from all that I hunger for, But open your angels arms to the Stranger In Paradise, And tell him (her) that he (she) need be a stranger no more.

FLAMINGO

Flamingo, like a flame in the sky, flying over the island to my lover nearby. Flamingo, in your tropical hue, speak of passion undying and a love that is true. The wind sings a song to you as you go, a song that I hear below the murmuring palms. Flamingo, when the sun meets the sea, say farewell to my lover and hasten to me.
