

The Stars Are Shining

poem by H. D. Lowry

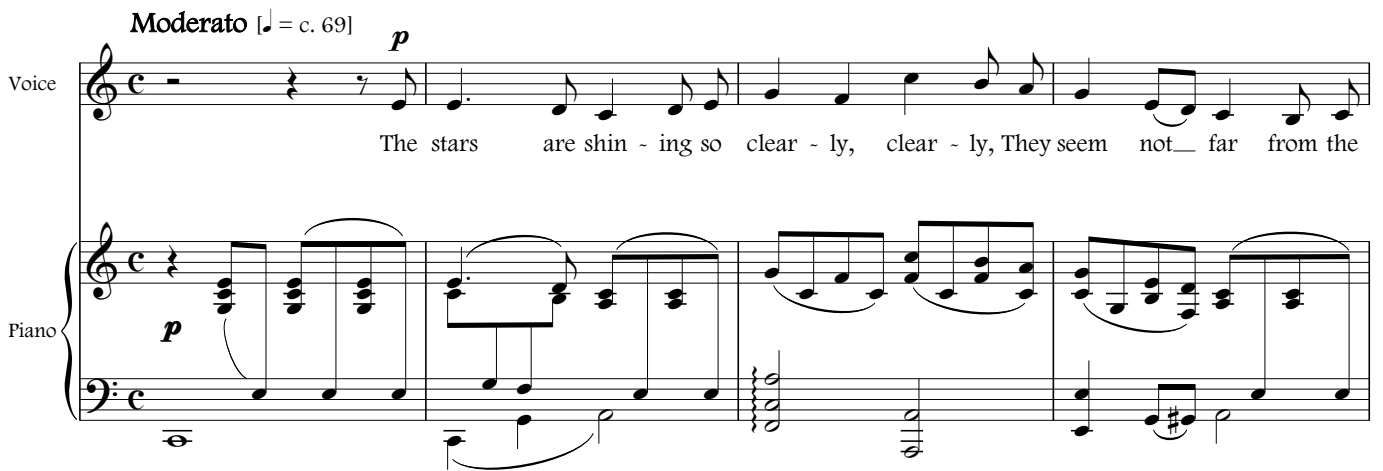

music by Arthur W. Finer

Moderato [$\text{♩} = \text{c. } 69$] p

Voice

The stars are shin - ing so clear - ly, clear - ly, They seem not far from the

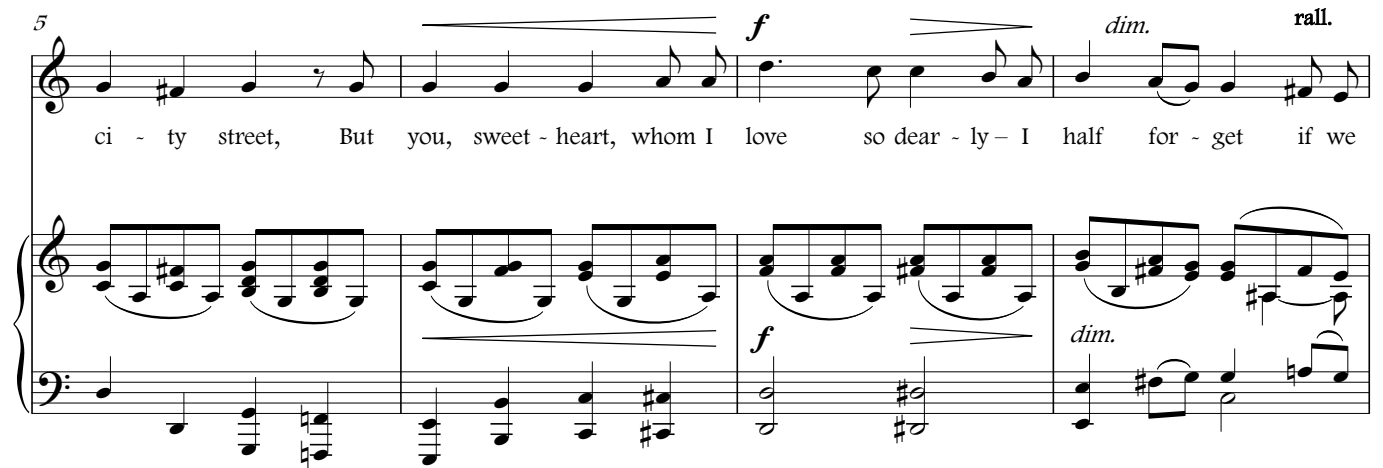

Piano

5

f dim. rall.

ci - ty street, But you, sweet - heart, whom I love so dear - ly - I half for - get if we

9

p a tempo con animà [$\text{♩} = \text{c. } 72$] p e - ver did meet. I half for - get if 'twas

13

I that kiss'd you, Once, where the wil - lows kiss the stream. I on - ly know I have 17

miss'd you, have miss'd you, I on - ly know I have miss'd you, have miss'd you

20

Out of my life, or out of a dream.

Originally published by Boosey & Co. in 1912
 Transcribed and edited from the MS by the composer's great-great-nephew, Mark Edgley Smith