

(No) DIAMONDS IN THE MINE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY LEONARD COHEN

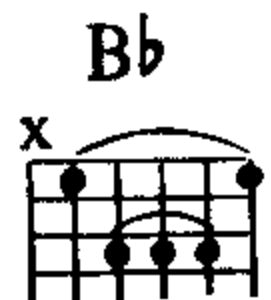

Moderately

Musical notation for the first vocal line, starting with a 4-measure rest followed by the lyrics.

1. The wom - an in Piano accompaniment for the first system, including treble and bass clefs, a mf dynamic marking, and a repeat sign.

Musical notation for the second vocal line, starting with a 4-measure rest followed by the lyrics.

blue, she's ask - ing — for re - venge.

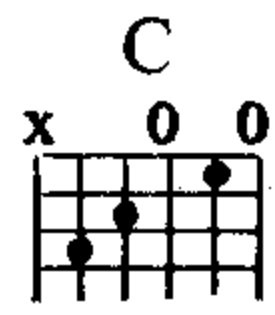

Piano accompaniment for the second system, including treble and bass clefs and various musical notations.

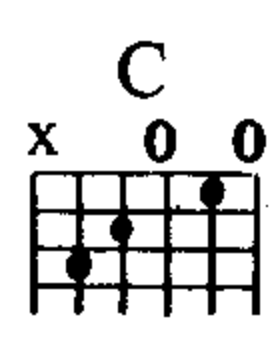

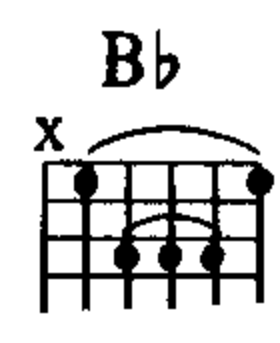

Musical notation for the third vocal line, starting with a 4-measure rest followed by the lyrics.

The man in white, that's you, says he has no

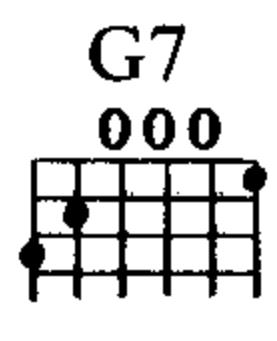

Piano accompaniment for the third system, including treble and bass clefs and various musical notations.

friends. The riv er is swol - len up with rust - y cans, — And the trees are

Chorus:

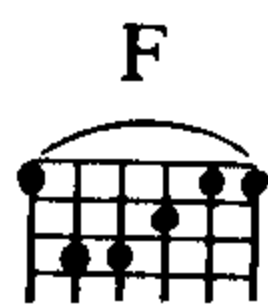

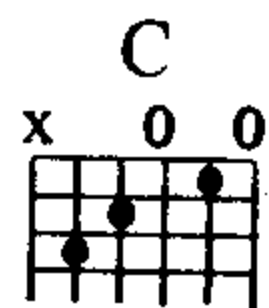

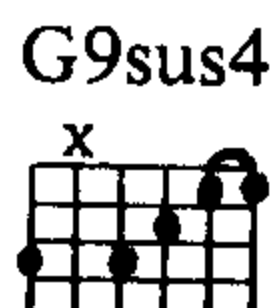

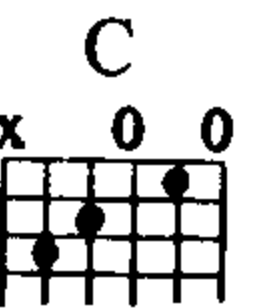

burn - ing in your — prom - ised land. — And there are — — no let - ters in the mail - box.

And there are no grapes up - on the vine. —

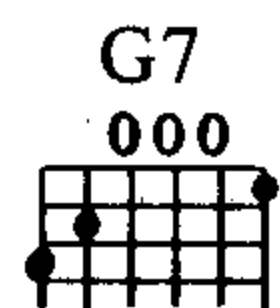

And there are — no

choc - 'lates in your box - es an - y - more. — And there are —

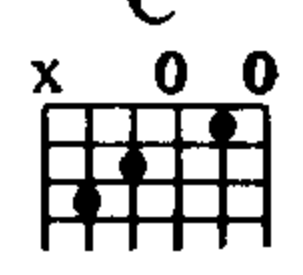

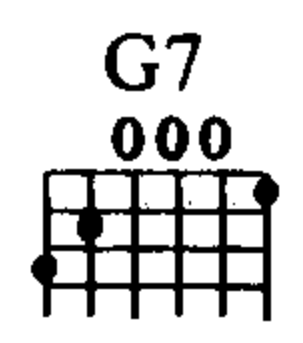

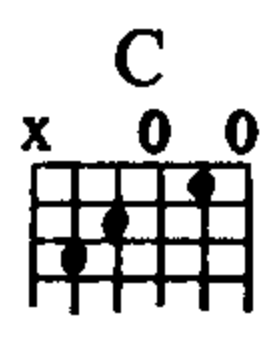

no dia - monds in the mine. —

And there are no dia - monds in the mine...

1., 2.

3.

2. Well, you

Additional Lyrics

- 2. Well, you tell me that your lover has a broken limb.
 You see, I'm kind-a restless now, and it's on account of him.
 Well, I saw the man in question, it was just the other night.
 He was eating up a lady where the lions and Christians fight.
Chorus

- 3. Ah, there is no comfort in the covens of the witch.
 Some very clever doctor went and sterilized the bitch.
 And the only man of energy, yes, the revolution's pride.
 He trained a hundred women just to kill an unborn child.
Chorus